

To whom it may concern,

I would like to weigh-in on the LNP issue currently in review by the FCC. I support LNP, and believe it not only promotes competition within the wireless industry, but also provides the consumer with a broader range of services, plans, and providers.